2. Between 9 and 18 June, MiG-15s or U-MiG-15s exclusively practiced flying at the field. Air activity included local flights with extended landing gears of about 4 minutes duration and flights of up to 20 minutes duration. Between the landing and the next take off of the same plane there were intervals of 5 to 15 minutes. After air activity, part of the aircraft taxied to the hangars, while part of them were towed there.
